

Introducing the Georgia Chapter of IAP2

Come help us launch the Georgia IAP2 Chapter and join fellow public involvement practitioners as we discuss the topic:

“Overcoming Resistance to Public Participation – Workplace Resistance AND Community Resistance”

This lunch time session will be presented and led by Jon Abercrombie, Director of Common Focus, an organization which designs and leads organizational and community dialogues. Jon is also the founder of Charis Community Housing in Atlanta, Georgia.

This will be an opportunity for you to exchange ideas and network with your peers, receive information about IAP2 and IAP2 Georgia Chapter events.

When: Wednesday, February 15, 2006
 Time: 11:30 am – 1:30 pm
 Where: Loudermilk Center, Cramer Room (Level C)
 Atlanta Regional Commission
 40 Courtland Street
 Atlanta, Georgia 30303

Website for directions: <http://www.loudermilkcenter.com/map.html>

To ensure that adequate lunches have been ordered, please pre-register and forward payment no later than February 6, 2006, to Sue Allison. Registration at the door will be an ADDITIONAL $10.00.

Visit the IAP2 – Georgia Chapter Website for more information: www.iap2.org

Mailing Address:

IAP2 Georgia Chapter
 ATTN: Sue Allison
 6801 Governors Lake Parkway
 Norcross, Georgia 30071
 Phone: 678-333-0200
 Fax: 678-333-0469

Registration:

IAP2 Members: $10.00
Non-members: $15.00
Students: $5.00

Name: _____

Organization: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____ Phone Number: _____

Be sure to bring business cards for networking and to enter door prize drawing!

** Parking at the Loudermilk Center will be an additional charge – not associated with IAP2

IAP2 is an international professional organization for people who initiate public decision- making processes with a focus on identifying and implementing practical tools and best practices that benefit communities.

Georgia IAP2 Mission Statement: To provide networking and training opportunities for practitioners in Georgia.